

Rules about Sharing Our Artwork

We all learned in Kindergarten that that we should not use other people's stuff without asking permission. This applies to artwork, too.

All Misfit Designs art is copyrighted.

That means it can not be used, any where or in any way, without the permission of Jody Lynne Werner (The Artist).

If you wish to use Misfit Designs work please ask us. We're good about giving permission to share our artwork online, in certain circumstances, if you ask. We are not very good about letting you share it if you don't ask.

How you may use our work

The Artist invites you to share any art she posts to the Misfit Designs Facebook page, using the "share" feature, to any other Facebook page.

The Artist's work may not be used in any other manner, including but not limited to:

- Copy/download and re-post to Facebook. You may only "share" directly from the Misfit Designs page to yours.
- Anywhere outside of Facebook. This includes blogs, websites, forums, online newsletters, or anyplace else online. It also includes copying/downloading to your own computer.
- Any place in print, whether for entertainment, advertising, or any other purpose, profit or non-profit
- On any advertising or on any merchandise or for sale
- Any other way you can think of that we've not mentioned.

If you see our work posted online, and there is not a link included to the Misfit Designs Facebook page or Cafepress store (or if the artwork has been altered in some way), chances are we haven't given permission for this. Please let us know and send us a link to where you find the art to art@misfitdesignshq.com. Thank you for helping to protect the rights of Artists everywhere.
